

Pathways in horticulture
 - study and careers

Supervisor roles in private, public and National Trust gardens, management in garden centres, supervisory roles in nursery work and grounds maintenance

With more specific training, garden design and landscaping work, horticultural therapy.

Teaching horticulture to level 2

Royal Horticultural Society
Master of Horticulture (Mhort)
 Degree equivalent

Volunteering and paid work for National Trust and therapeutic horticulture charities; WRAGS placements; garden centre work, independent garden maintenance, design and maintain gardens

Teaching horticulture to level 1

RHS Level 3 Practical Certificate

RHS Level 3 Theory Certificate in the Principles of Plant Growth

RHS Level 3 Theory Certificate in the Principles of Garden Planning

All 3 Certificates = RHS Level 3 Diploma in Horticulture

RHS Level 2 Practical Certificate

RHS Level 2 Theory Certificate in the Principles of Plant Growth

RHS Level 2 Theory Certificate in the Principles of Garden Planning

All 3 Certificates = RHS Level 2 Diploma in Horticulture

Start Here

